

Manav Rachna International Institute of Research and Studies

Report on Observance of Gandhi Jayanti

Gandhi Jayanti, celebrated on October 2nd, commemorates the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, a pioneer of non-violent civil disobedience and India's struggle for independence. It is a national holiday in India and a day to remember Gandhi's values of truth, peace, and social justice. Events include prayer meetings, commemorative ceremonies, and discussions on his teachings, emphasizing the enduring relevance of his principles worldwide.

