

Manav Rachna International Institute of Research and Studies

Report on Celebration of Durga Puja

Durga Puja, a grand Hindu festival, celebrates the victory of Goddess Durga over the demon Mahishasura. Held annually in September or October, it's the biggest festival in West Bengal, India, and various other parts of the world. Elaborate decorations, artistic idols of Durga, cultural performances, processions, and feasts are integral to the celebration. It brings communities together, showcasing their devotion, artistry, and cultural heritage while honoring the divine feminine energy embodied by Goddess Durga.

